>"Toothless." Hiccup breathed, he had taken Toothless and himself to the island where dragons have their babies.

Hiccup felt incredible hot, feeling his face flushed a bright red color as he sweated lightly, he was going into heat, he has long explain to Toothless what an Omega was and why he, Hiccup didn't want to get knotted and impregnated by an Alpha but that was before he found out he loved Toothless and now here he was getting ready to mate with Toothless and to let him knot him and most possible breed him.

Hiccup knew he might come out with bruises if he mated with Toothless and that Toothless will most likely bite down on his bonding gland marking him to both his village and the dragon community as Toothless' mate but Hiccup didn't care.

Toothless showed him more love, understanding and compassion in a few days then his village and father did in his whole life, he loved Toothless with all his being and Hiccup knew that Toothless return those feelings.

Toothless croon softly with worry as he watch Hiccup curl into a tight ball whimpering in pain before shifting closer to press his naked body against Toothless' cool scales well at least the felt cool to Hiccup as his heat made his body go into a high temperate.

Toothless couldn't stand seeing his soon to be mate in distress and decided to start grooming him, he licked Hiccup across his face to test to see if that was okay. Toothless might not know too much about a human's heat cycle or Omega heat as Hiccup explain to him but he was going to assume it's like a female dragon's, they would let you mate with them when they were ready and before that they either ignored you or grown at you to back off.

The only thing Toothless was happy about this Omega heat is that humans also mate for life and are bonding to each other expect that they don't pass on if their mate does from what he heard about Hiccup's parents, his mother being killed and his father was still alive but Toothless was okay with he might not understand who Stoick.

Toothless purred when Hiccup didn't resist or moved away from his tongue, Toothless tentatively started to lick Hiccup's neck, chest and navel pausing when he heard Hiccup's gasp of pleasure and soft moan as Toothless licked close to Hiccup's half hard member.

Toothless let out a soft growl of dominance and arousal when he breathed in Hiccup's sweet ripe fertile scent and decided it was safe to start licking his soon to be mate in other more private areas and started to lick Hiccup's half hard erection and enjoying Hiccup's taste and smell.

Toothless let out a low warning growl when Hiccup shifted away from him but titled his head when Hiccup got in his hands and knees before spreading his legs a little making his erection move with his movements and laid down his front half of his body to the ground presenting his slick covered entrance to Toothless who let out a sound between a purr and growl of arousal to see his mate present himself that way to him.

Toothless felt his own penis slip out of its protective sheath, he gently walked over to Hiccup and started lapping at the slick coming out of Hiccup's entrance hole.

"Toothless..." Hiccup said breathlessly as he moaned as he felt Toothless licking him entrance making his body produce more self-lub that Omegas made as he arched his back and pressed his bottom more into Toothless' tongue.

Toothless purred in pure bliss, his mate's heat flavored fluids tasted exotic and delicious to Toothless, who felt like he could continue to lap up the delicious fluids his mate was making all day until he had his full but his erection made itself known by become painfully hard making Toothless shift before giving one last lick and gently placing his front paws around Hiccup's bony hips and pulling Hiccup closer and he started to thrust a little trying to find Hiccup's entrance.

Found it! Toothless exclaimed in his mind when the tip of his erection went inside something moist and warm, purring and nuzzling the small thin body under him before pushing all the way in until he was buried all the way to the hilt inside Hiccup, holding still when he heard Hiccup pain filled whimpers. Toothless licked Hiccup's shoulder in apology and waited for his mate to tell him it was okay to move.

Hiccup was in pure bliss as Toothless lapped up his fluids that were dripping out of his entrance before feeling soft smooth scales on his chest as Toothless mounted him. Hiccup open his eyes as he felt Toothless' hard member poke his thighs as Toothless started to try and find his entrance. Hiccup gasped when he felt something warm and smooth enter inside him.

Before Hiccup can grasp the fact that Toothless was inside he felt Toothless nuzzle him and purred before he felt something big and thick sink all the way in making Hiccup whimpering pain as his walls spasmed around the intruder inside him.

Hiccup took deep breaths trying to get pass the pain, he felt Toothless deep panting on his neck and knew that at least he was enjoying this. Hiccup was glad that Toothless was staying still waiting for him to adjust to Toothless' member being inside him and after a few minutes the pain numbed and the pleasure made itself known by traveling up his spin and making his muscles relax.

Hiccup moaned softly as he squeezed Toothless hard member with his walls enjoying the feeling of being filled but now his body hungered for something else to fill him, Toothless' semen.

"Toothless...please move." Hiccup said rocking his hips backwards a little trying to get some friction that his heated body oh so craved.

Finally. Toothless thought as he panted heavily while he tried to concentrate on not moving.

Toothless nipped Hiccup's bonding gland gently enjoy the pleased sound Hiccup made before almost pulling all the way out and before Hiccup could voice his displeasure. Toothless thrust back in gently at first but then started to hump Hiccup is fast steady rhythm the wet sounds of their love making echoing in the cave along with Hiccup's moans, gasps and pants of pleasure and Toothless grunts and growls of pleasure.

"Tooth-Toothless!" Hiccup moaned as felt his body course with pleasure with every thrust Toothless made, he panted this fire was spreading through his veins and pooling up in his stomach, he was getting to close but he didn't want this to end so soon.

Mine. Toothless growled as his eyes slit in pleasure and he pulled Hiccup closer with his front paws that were wrapped around Hiccup's waist as he speed up his thrusts pushing further in instinctively making sure that his already forming knot was getting in. Hiccup moaned loudly as his prostate was hit over and over with precise aim.

Hiccup gripped the dirt under him as he felt this extreme pleasure course through his body as his vision flashed white for a moment and he came all over the ground coveting it his seed and covering his mate's thrusting member in his slick.

"Toothless!" Hiccup moaned as he came shuddering in pleasure as his walls clamp down on Toothless throbbing erection.

Hiccup!. Toothless grunted when felt member clenched by Hiccup's walls when Hiccup came and he gave two final deep thrusts before burying himself all the way in and letting his knot form as he release his big load inside his mate and biting gently down on the bonding gland marking Hiccup as his.

Hiccup gave a soft gasp and low moan of pleasure as he felt Toothless' member throbbing inside him releasing his seed in large thick threads and the knot that made Hiccup feel pleasantly filled and satisfied that his mate's seed was trapped inside his very willing and fertile body.

Hiccup smiled lazily when Toothless gently bit his bonding gland, he finally had an Alpha even if his Alpha was a dragon but he was loved and accept by Toothless even before his tribe and his now friends and father did and for that Hiccup loved Toothless more then anyone and was glad to find out Toothless loved him back.

/"I love you, Toothless."/ Hiccup manage to say in dragonese.

I love you too. Toothless croon softly nuzzling his mate before gently started to lick Hiccup's shoulders and back, grooming him while he's locked inside Hiccup.

Hiccup usual protested when Toothless would lick him by saying that dragon silva doesn't wash off clothes but he isn't wearing any right now and he learn that male dragons groom their mate while their knotted together to try a sooth them.

Hiccup decided that feeling Toothless soft tongue running over his naked body made his heat filled body react. Hiccup felt his flaccid member start to get hard again with every lick Toothless gave. Hiccup moaned when Toothless licked over a very sensitive part on collarbone.

Toothless let out a arousal growl and pulled Hiccup closer to the soft scales of his underbelly before sitting on his hunches without moving or jolting the area they were connect holding Hiccup gently under the armpits and started to lick Hiccup's stomach and navel enjoying the gasps and moans of pleasure his mate released.

"Toothless...you...ah!...oh, gods Toothless!" Hiccup gasped as his eyes closed in pleasure when Toothless started to lick his hard staining member.

Hiccup felt like fire was coursing through his body from the stimulations going through it, the feeling of being filled by Toothless big knot, the twitching of Toothless' member inside releasing giant loads of cum inside his womb and now Toothless lapping at his hard member. Hiccup twitched and his toes curled as he felt the familiar build up and clamp down on Toothless still ejaculating member as he felt the end nearing.

"Tooth-Toothless... I'm going to I-" Hiccup started to say before releasing a load moan.

"Toothless!" Hiccup moaned out as his back arched as he orgasm once more, his walls clamped even tighter around Toothless' member.

Toothless purred and let out a pleased growl as he licked off all of Hiccup's cum making sure not a drop was missed as his member was pleasurablely squeezed by Hiccup's walls causing him to jerk his hips upwards in a thrusting manner a little bit despite his knot not letting him get any deeper then he already was but did cause his member to ejaculate with another powerful stream rather then the short burst it was doing before.

Hiccup moaned softly, he was exhausted and very satisfied he didn't even fight as his eyes seemed to close and Toothless gently purring and licked him gently over his head.

2. Chapter 2

EgyptAdbydos: I absolutely love this pairing, so if you don't like human x dragon sex scenes or relationship don't read. Other then that enjoy and R & R.

>Toothless found a way to lay down on his side without hurting Hiccup or himself waiting for his knot to go down or deflate completely so he could pull out.

Toothless sniffed Hiccup purring in pure bliss at his mate's heated scent before lifting his right back leg a little bit to sniff the place where he and Hiccup were connected and give a small lick happy that his seed wasn't dripping out.

Toothless put his leg down gently and laid his head down sighing in contentment deciding to take nap as well it was going to be a long while before he pulled out if he had any say in it.

Toothless woke up before Hiccup, glancing over by the entrance of the cave Toothless could tell it was around five in the afternoon, they slept a good hour. Toothless decided to test if could pull out finding out that his knot had completely deflated, Toothless pulled out and started licking Hiccup's entrance enjoying the taste of their mixes essences.

"Ummm, Toothless...what time is it?" Hiccup asked rubbing his eyes and looking at Toothless.

Toothless tilted his head and purred pointing outside with his nose.

"It looks like about five in the afternoon..." Hiccup trailed off before standing up quickly, feeling something drip down his legs.

Hiccup glanced down at his legs and noticed some of Toothless' seed was dripping down, Toothless came over and started licking it off.

Hiccup bit back a moan as Toothless started to clean him up. "Toothless...stop it, I'm clean." Hiccup said as he wiggled away.

Toothless huffed before pulled away, Hiccup smiled and pulled on his shirt and pants before stretching, he felt wonderfully satisfied.

Toothless scented the air, Hiccup's fertile heated scent was still there, Toothless purred that meant more mating.

A couple of hours later and after eating some fish, Hiccup gave a soft moan as Toothless gave a finally thrust before knotting him again, Toothless grunted in pleasure as Hiccup's walls clench around his weeping member squeezing his cum out. After an hour Toothless was able to pull out and licked Hiccup's entrance before pulling away to take in Hiccup's scent.

Toothless purred when the sweet smell of pregnancy and gaved Hiccup a lick on the cheek.

"Toothless," Hiccup said laughing and smiling at Toothless.

"Toothless?...am I pregnant?" Hiccup asked the next morning after he ate three raw fish, something he wouldn't do if he was well normal.

Toothless nodded as he rubbed his head against Hiccup's body, Hiccup smiled and hugged Toothless.

"We're having a baby or babies!" Hiccup said excitement in his voice before he frozen and went very still.

Toothless coo'd with concern and worry as he smelled the fear and panic in his mate's scent.

"My dad...Toothless what if he...what if tries to kill you..." Hiccup said with fear in his voice before his emerald green widen with panic.

"What if he tries to..kill our baby or babies?!" Hiccup hugging his still flat stomach where his and Toothless' baby or babies were growing.

Toothless growled lowly in his throat at the thought of Hiccup's big brawn brainless in Toothless' opinion father even dares to try to hurt his _mate_ or his _children_.

"T-Toothless?" Hiccup's panicked filled voice snapped Toothless out of his thoughts on kill to kill Stoick if so much as raise his voice in his beloved human. "W-what are going t-to do?"

Toothless coo'd with reassurance and nuzzled his mate bring his tail to encircle Hiccup's waist so he could pull Hiccup's body gently to his side and let his right wing drape over he human in trying his best to give a hug when Hiccup's body grumbled and Toothless was able to smell the salt water that meant his Hiccup was crying.

Toothless felt anger at the fact that Stoick being the way he is, his Hiccup was afraid of what would happen but for now he'll comfort his mate as best he can and vowed silently he would not let anything happen to Hiccup or their unborn children.

>EgyptAdbydos: I know it's short but the next chapter is going to be long after all Stoick's reaction to this news is going to be well...not so good but he'll come around.

3. Chapter 3

EgyptAdbydos: Sorry for the long wait.

>"YOU ARE WHAT?!" The entire village flinched when they heard their Chief's yell from where they were, they all glanced over to where the Cheif's house was and all decided to gather as they watched their Chief and his son talk...yell, whatever they did.

Hiccup flinched as he clenched to Toothless' saddle even hard as he looked at the ground before lifting his forest green eyes up at his father. "I'm pregnant." Hiccup said more boldly as everyone gasped.

Fishlegs turned look at Astrid who looked equal as shocked, he briefly wondered if she was the father, she was the only Alpha Hiccup had a crush on and they seem to be 'together' as people put it. "Umm Astrid is it..." Fishlegs began to ask as Snoutlout, Ruffnut and Toughnut looked at her.

"No..." Astrid said as she looked at Hiccup with mixed feelings, she felt, hurt, regret, sadness and what surprised her recognition and acceptances and happiness toward Hiccup.

"Then who?..." Ruffnut began to ask looking at the other Alphas. "Not me, I would have boasted about it long ago and so would have Snoutlout because of his giant head." Toughnut said. "And Fishlegs...well its Fishlegs."

"Hey! I resent that but right now...he has a point." Fishlegs admitted.

Stoick sighed and pinched as he looked over at Hiccup with a crossed look. "And who..who is the father?" Stoick asked as he gripped his ax even harder.

Hiccup sighed and leaned against Toothless, who nuzzled him as he purred encouragement to his mate. "Even if I told you...I don't know if you'll believe me or...if you'll kill my children." Hiccup said as Toothless let out a low growl. Hiccup smiled as he petted Toothless's neck.

Stoick watched their interaction before sighing again and gave Hiccup and pointed look. "Try me." He said simply.

"Toothless." Hiccup said plainly and loudly for everyone to hear, even though he could feel his heart pounding against his chest trying to get out as he heard everyone in the tribe gasped in surprise and shock but Hiccup kept his eyes on his father who seem frozen in time.

Stoick face turn pale then red in anger as he glared at Toothless and then at Hiccup. "You mated with a dragon...he's the father?...How is that even possible? Why would you do something like this Hiccup?" Stoick yelled/said."Out of all the things you've done -" Stoick was interrupted by Hiccup.

"I KNOW!" Hiccup yelled as he glared at his father, his hands balled against his side. "I've done a lot of crazy things but this tops it, I now that! I know that I've been a disappointment, don't you think I know." Hiccup said more softly but everyone could hear as they were silent from their shock.

"As to why because I love him and before you ask why I didn't choose one of the Alphas..why would I want someone from this tribe who always saw me as a menace, a mistake, weak...people who didn't want me here to begin with...like you." Hiccup said as he looked at his eyes he didn't care of the hurt and regret he saw there, he's been hurt by these same people for far too long.

"Who didn't want me here or pay any attention other then to tease, put me down or say how much I'm a disappointment for everyone here...Toothless," Hiccup smiled as he said his mate's name with love as he glance over at Toothless who had gotten into a defensive mood. "Toothless showed me compassion, love, acceptance, joy, pride and most of all love, he showed me more love then anyone or all of the tribe combine has shown me in my entire life."

Hiccup looked at his father before looking at the tribe, his eyes landed on Astrid who was looking at him with mixed feelings. "I love him for that because with Toothless I've never felt more alive, more loved and accepted, somewhere were I can be me," Hiccup said speaking to the entire tribe now. "Its for those same reason why I choose him, so tell me dad, tell me one more time why I should choose someone from the tribe?"

Hiccup crossed his arms as he looked at Stoick. "Snoutlout? He's my cousin, he's arrogant, stubborn, stupid and nothing but pure mass with not even a brain to think with, like I would even think about taking him as a mate, I would rather kill myself, Toughnut? He's as dumb as a board, he's lanky has nothing coming for him with his stubbornness is death, Fishlegs? He's okay I suppose, but he's was too busy trying to be 'cool' and not pick on, he ignore me why would I want a mate who might treat me right in private but treats me like shit in public?!" Hiccup shook his head as he shifted on his feet. "And finally Astrid...I have to admit she was the best dragon hunter in our tribe, I'll admit that I had a huge crush on her and I would have gladly become her mate...back then but I grew up."

Hiccup looked at Toothless. "I realized I was just infatuated with her but I never loved her, I thought maybe with her the tribe wouldn't be so...unwelcoming and I realized using someone for just that reason was wrong and it made me stoop to their level, it didn't sit well with me." Hiccup petted Toothless as he looked at the sky before looking at his still speechless father and tribe, not even Snoutlout, Toughnut, Fishlegs or Astrid spook to the insults or things he was saying.

"Then I meet Toothless and I finally knew what Love is." Hiccup said. "Love is when you'll do anything for that person despite what other think, love is when you'll stay by that person's side, guide them, accept them and their flaws because no one is prefect in this life." Hiccup took a hold of Toothless's straddle and jumped on his back before looking at his father.

"I don't know what you had with mom but sometimes I wish she was still here instead of you...maybe things would have been different from the beginning or worse...frankly it doesn't matter to me, not anymore. I could careless what you think, what the tribe thinks...sometimes I think mom died when she did, she wouldn't have to put up with you and your stupid ideas." Hiccup tighten his hold on the reins as he looked at his father.

"Hiccup..." Stoick's voice was laced with pain, regret and hint of anger which was quickly disappearing.

"Don't worry, Stoick, I'm not leaving at least not yet, this is my home as well as anyones but if the dragon's decided to leave...then I'll go too...and not you or the tribe think about hurting my babies because if you do...you will not live to find out what I will do to you." Hiccup's voice held a strong tone to is as well as coldness which was so unlike him.

It was a threat and one that the whole tribe could agree on was very real, it sent a shiver down their backs on how different Hiccup was right at this moment and they didn't even know if it was a good thing.

Toothless coo'd as he glanced over at Hiccup, even he could agree it was so unlike his mate. "let's go bud." Hiccup whispered into Toothless ear, his voice sound tired and strained like he wanted to cry but was holding back. Toothless took the hint and flew away, letting Hiccup guide him to where he wanted to go, Toothless smiled when he noticed Hiccup had chosen the clove where they first meet.

Hiccup got off of Toothless' back and kneeled down as he began to cry. "I'm sorry Toothless...I don't know where all that came from...I just felt anger and then everything just spilled...everything I held inside for so long..." Toothless coo'd and wrapped a wing around his Omega and pulled him closer letting Hiccup cry against him. Toothless was actually glad Hiccup had gotten all that baggage off his chest, he need it.

"And then when I threaten everyone...I just picture them hurting our children and I lost it...I will not let them do anything to them...ever." Hiccup said as he cries lessened.

Toothless purred, he completely agreed with Hiccup, no one was going to touch their children.
